

What constitutes a good application in Nordplus Junior?

Applications should target one or more of the specific aims of the Nordplus program, which you find in the Nordplus handbook.

The foundation of a good application consists of a combination of:

- Target one or more of the specific aims of the Nordplus programme. Carefully and concretely describe how the planned actions within the project address the chosen Nordplus program aim(s).
- That each partner in a project gains from the cooperation in and results from the project in a way to achieve positive changes in terms of development. And that this development is in accordance with curricula as well as with one or more of the aims of Nordplus program.
- That the project is based on needs and priorities within each organisation and integrated in what they normally would do.
- That the project involves as many as possibly in each organisation and that it has the support of the management of the institution.
- That the tasks of the participating institutions are clearly defined in advance and thereby shows how each partner contributes to reaching the aims of the project in an adequate way.

A good application for Mobility activities, Projects and Networks should contain

Relevance and purpose

- Identify development needs of all participating organizations. Furthermore, how does it target one or more of the aims of the Nordplus programme? Clarify why all the participants/partners will benefit of the project, and that the results of the project will contribute to a positive development in the participating organizations. Explain and clarify the international added value of the project.

Project objectives, content and outcomes

- Clearly and concretely define the expected outcomes of the project and impacts on the participating institutions and participation of individuals in relation to the objectives you have set for the project.

- Set specific goals and describe from a short- and long-term perspective
- How / in what ways do you intend to evaluate the activities and results of the project? Define what you are going to evaluate, how and when.

Organisation and implementation capacity

- Describe as concretely as possible how the planned activities are consistent and meet the goals and objectives of the project. Describe a clear activity plan containing the activities you will undertake. It is important that the activities are distributed over the entire project period.
- The distribution of tasks among the participating institutions are clearly defined in advance and thereby can deduce how each partner adequately contribute to achieving the objectives of the project. What measures do you plan to take to ensure effective communication and cooperation between the participating institutions?
- How do you intend to concretely integrate the intended activities of the participating institutions to involve as many participants as possible?
- In what way does the management of each institution support the project?

Dissemination

- How do you intend to disseminate the results to the participants in the project?
- What results are you focusing on spreading, to whom, how, and for what purpose?
- How do you plan to disseminate results to individuals, groups and institutions that do not participate in the project?

A good application for Preparatory visits should:

- Relevance, purpose and target group
  - In which of the following sub-programs do you intend to prepare a Nordplus application
  - Describe the purpose and goals of the visit and what Nordplus activity is best suited to your project idea
  - Describe development needs of all partner institutions
- Describe the intended preparatory visits
  - What contacts have you had before the meeting?
  - Who will be the host for the meeting?
  - What might be the subjects for cooperation in a future possible project be?
  - What contribution to the cooperation is each partner intended to bring to a possible future project?

Project description

Relevance, purpose and target group of future project

Give a short outline of the future project you wish to prepare for.

What is the background and motivation for the project?

What will be the subject and target group(s) of the future project and which type of project activity do you intend to apply for?

Shortly describe each organisation and in what capacity the organisation will participate in the project – i.e. the particular expertise and role and contribution to the project.

Description of preparatory visit

Please present a program/agenda for the meeting.

Indicate date and place for the visit and describe the planned activities.